

Celebrating Celebrations

This year, Reach Out and Read celebrates 20 years of making books part of a healthy childhood. We hope you enjoy these doctor-recommended books to mark the special occasions of growing up. Life is full of celebrations and there is a book for each one!

6-12 Months

Smile!
by Roberta Grobel Intrater
A baby's smile is a gift!

Happy Birth Day!
by Robie Harris
Today, you are born, and your family has gathered to celebrate.

Ruby's Tea Party for Two
by Rosemary Wells
Max and Ruby are inviting you to a party!

12-18 Months

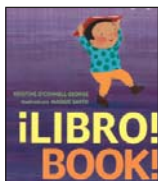

Happy Birthday!
by Richard & Michele Steckel
How do kids around the world celebrate their birthdays? Just like you!

Birthday Monsters
by Sandra Boynton
How do birthday monsters party? Badly!

Go Baby!
by Richard & Michele Steckel
A wonderful milestone – baby learns to walk!

18-24 Months

¡Libro! Book!
by Kristine O'Connell George
Books are the best present ever!

Miss Spider's Tea Party
by David Kirk
Please come to a tea party in this beautifully illustrated book.

Pretty Brown Face!
by Andrea Pinkney
Families are truly worth celebrating!

24-36 Months

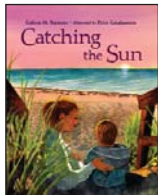

A Feast for Ten
by Cathryn Falwell
A family dinner can be a feast.

Night Noises
by Mem Fox
What could those noises be? A party?

Koala Lou
by Mem Fox
A mother's love for her child is something to celebrate.

3-5 Years

Catching the Sun
by Coleen Paratore
How will Dylan and his mother celebrate his birthday after the new baby arrives?

The Birthday Book
by Ann Druitt, Christine Tynes-Clinton, & Mary C. Rowling
Birthdays are joyous milestones!

Celebrations/Celebraciones
by Nancy Maria Grande Tabor
Enjoy the rich cultural heritage of the United States and Mexico.